
Position Available: Videographer

Are you a person who enjoys challenges and making a difference in the world?

Free The Children is the largest network of children helping children through education in the world. Through our organization's unique youth-driven approach, more than one million young people have been involved in our innovative programs in more than 45 countries. Founded by international child rights activist Craig Kielburger in 1995, Free The Children has an established track-record of success, with four nominations for the Nobel Peace Prize and partnerships with the United Nations, and Oprah's Angel Network.

Free The Children seeks a talented and creative Videographer who will be responsible for editing footage, is interested in social justice issues and is willing to travel.

The position is based out of Free The Children's Toronto office (233 Carlton Street) with an immediate start date. A minimum two-year commitment is required and salary is to be determined. Upon completion of the three-month probationary period, staff members are offered health benefits, an Employee Assistance Program and professional learning opportunities through the Staff Professional Development Plan.

Roles and Responsibilities of a Videographer

The duties of this position include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Receive film and/or video footage from the content department for review
- Editing of film and/or video footage
- Converting it and preparing it for the web or DVD production
- Ensuring visual compliance with censorship standards
- Checking final product for quality

Qualifications

The ideal candidate should encompass the following skill sets:

- Knowledge of and experience with the following is required:
 - Adobe Premiere, Final Cut Pro, Pinnacle Studio, Adobe Photoshop, and Macromedia Flash.
- Editing experience is a must
- Ability to multi-task in a demanding and fast-paced work environment with strict deadlines
- Meticulous attention to detail with excellent organizational and time-management skills
- Strong interpersonal skills in all internal and external relations, including the ability to work effectively with a variety of people from different countries
- Demonstrated ability to work well both independently and within a team setting
- Excellent written, verbal and interpersonal communications and public-speaking skills
- Must be eligible to work in Canada

If you think you would be an ideal candidate for the position, email your resume and provide a link to samples of your work to rann@freethechildren.com. Only resumes with submitted work will be considered. Free The Children is an equal opportunity employer committed to diversity and welcomes all interested parties to apply.